Meeting Summary

Minutes

The minutes of the previous meeting held on 19 September 2017 were agreed.

Programme Progress Report

Ms Johnson summarised items on the programme, and gave an update on the various workstreams. She confirmed the intention for the planning application to be submitted in February 2018.

Planning Application Update

Barton Willmore provided a summary of the meetings which had taken place since the previous Steering Group meeting including with Historic England and Transport for London. There was an update on the public engagement events which had taken place in September and October 2017. It was noted that 17 workshops had been held between 4 and 13 September, followed by 5 days of public exhibition and a separate engagement meeting with residents from the Minstead Gardens bungalows. A further public exhibition pre-submission would take place in January 2018.

Bessborough Road Satellite Site

Mr Cox reported on progress with the scheme design and planning application and explained the proposals for housing, environmental works and parking on that site. It is intended that the application would be considered at the March 2018 Planning Applications Committee.

Community Facilities Update

Mr Cox updated the Steering Group on the design meeting which was held with Eastwood Children's Centre and Nursery's management.

Consultation and Community Engagement

There was a discussion over the branding of the scheme, with Alton Green being the most popular option from the survey held during the September 2017 consultation sessions.

Any Other Business

The next meeting will take place on 28 November 2017.
